Graffeo Coffee featured in National Geographic's book "The 10 Best of Everything"

Award-winning coffee roaster, Graffeo featured in National Geographic's book The 10 Best of Everything

[ClickPress, Wed Jun 20 2007] What do Chateau Petrus, Cohiba, Chanel, and Graffeo coffee have in common? They are all featured brands in National Geographic's superlative book "The 10 Best of Everything."

Also ranked #1 in coffee quality by ZAGAT guide, and called "the best coffee around" by Wine Spectator, Graffeo's inclusion in authors and connoisseurs Nathaniel and Andrew Lande's compilation is a testament to Graffeo's long-time commitment to roasting the finest and freshest coffee.

Founded in 1935 on the streets of San Francisco's Italian culinary capital, North Beach, Graffeo is a know purveyor to the world's best restaurants such as Wolfgang Puck's Postrio and Danny Meyer's famed Tabla. In Asia, Graffeo has continued this reputation and currently supplies swank and upscale locations such as the Wynn Macau, the 6-Star Crown Macau, Amanresorts, as well as Harlan's, Kee Club, FINDS, and Jia Boutique hotel amongst many others.

"Graffeo has specialized in only one thing: roasting coffee. This singular focus has resulted in flavorful, delicious blends and devoted clientele" states Lande in his book.

Made from the finest, freshest Arabica beans from Costa Rica, Colombia, and New Guinea. Graffeo's award-winning blends currently populate Asia's coffee-crazed high-end trendy establishments from Shanghai to Singapore.

About Graffeo Coffee Roasting Company

Graffeo is a world leading high-end specialty coffee roaster and distributor with operations in San Francisco, San Rafael, Beverly Hills, Singapore and Hong Kong. It is the coffee of choice for aficionados and can be enjoyed at many of the world's finest restaurants, hotels, and cafes. It's award-wining blends have been recommended by many leading publications including ZAGAT, Gourmet magazine, Wine Spectator, and National Geographic's "The 10 Best of Everything".

National Geographic's "The 10 Best of Everything"

From Arnold Palmer's ten finest golf courses to Luciano Pavarotti's ten favorite opera houses to the ten poshest train trips, classiest wristwatches, most atmospheric pubs, and much more, this is a blue-chip bible to delight any traveler for whom only the very best will do and a rich dreambook for those of us still waiting for our own ships to come in. Compiled by veteran travelers Nathaniel and Andrew Lande, this extravagantly entertaining volume collects superlatives galore: top sporting events and tropical island hideaways, glorious gardens and magnificent museums, stylish ski runs, superb cigars, and even the Ten Best Things to Do on a Sunday Afternoon in more than a dozen of the world's greatest cities. Highlighted by 200 color illustrations, studded with cosmopolitan sidebars and savvy tips, and equipped with a wide array of detailed information on luxury hotels, resorts, restaurants, and more, as well as a wealth of transportation options via land, sea or air, this elegant and sophisticated treasury of travel lore will awaken the wanderlust in readers everywhere.
